

Tread carefully with your Tax Credits

With Tax Credits due to end in 2024, you may hear or see adverts encouraging you to switch to Universal Credit early if you have children or a low income.

Some people could get more money, but some could get caught out by extra rules and responsibilities that are part of Universal Credit.

Ask your GP practice to refer you to our Healthier & Wealthier team to check if this is right for you...
