GP COMMISSIONING: MOTIONS FOR SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE MEETING TO BE HELD IN LONDON, 15 MARCH 2011

The Chairman, Dr Danny Donovan, welcomed GPs and Practice Managers who were present (totalling 61 altogether) and introduced the other members of the top table: Dr John Canning, Secretary : Dr Julie Birch, Medical Director/Asst Secretary and the LMC lead GP on GP commissioning : Dr Komal Jaiswal, Vice Chairman : Dr Bill Beeby, GPC representative for the area.

Dr Beeby gave a PowerPoint Presentation on the White Paper, GP commissioning and changes to the NHS. Attendees were then asked to put forward ideas and comments in order to formulate motions to be sent to the Agenda Committee for consideration, prior to a Special Representative Meeting being held in London on 15 March 2011 at which the BMA would formalise its position on the government's White Paper and proposed changes to the NHS.

Much discussion ensued, and ideas taken forward to formulate motions to be considered by the LMC Extraordinary Board Meeting which followed the Open Meeting. Attendees were thanked for their participation and welcomed to remain whilst the Extraordinary Board Meeting took place.

The Open Meeting closed at 8.16 p.m.
