GROUP MEMBERS REQUIRED

Are you are interested in sharing you love of reading with others?

Would like to join an informal group to read / talk about books?

If the answer is yes, then we are looking for a group of individuals to come together here at the library monthly. Dates and times to be decided.

Meet up with old friends and make new ones.
Discuss selected books of your own choice.
We will provide the space and selected books.
Then all we need is you along with your flask of tea.

Please ask a member of staff for details.
