

Automated Phone System (Patient Partner)

To prevent patients with possible cases of Coronavirus booking appointments via the automated telephone system, we have stopped all appointments being booked in this way.

This is a temporary measure and will be reviewed on a weekly basis.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused and thank you for your patience and understanding during this difficult time.

The partners
13th March 2020