

Empowering older adults in local emergencies

FREE EVENT

Tuesday 29
September 2015
10am – 2.30pm

HG Wells Centre,
Church Street East,
Woking, Surrey
GU21 6HJ

Emergencies can be unexpected and disruptive. But there are a few simple things you can do to prepare.

If you're aged 65 or over, join us at this free event to help prepare for emergencies. Share your experiences of emergency situations, chat through your concerns and find out what support is available to you. Lunch is provided and you'll also get a free emergency 'grab bag' to take home.

This event is organised by the British Red Cross, Surrey County Council and Woking Borough Council.

To reserve your place please RSVP to oliviaburke@redcross.org.uk or call 020 7877 7494 by 7 September 2015

Please let us know any dietary, access or transport requirements as these can be accommodated by the event organisers.

Empowering older adults in local emergencies

FREE EVENT

Tuesday 29
September 2015
10am – 2.30pm

HG Wells Centre,
Church Street East,
Woking, Surrey
GU21 6HJ

Emergencies can be unexpected and disruptive. But there are a few simple things you can do to prepare.

If you're aged 65 or over, join us at this free event to help prepare for emergencies. Share your experiences of emergency situations, chat through your concerns and find out what support is available to you. Lunch is provided and you'll also get a free emergency 'grab bag' to take home.

This event is organised by the British Red Cross, Surrey County Council and Woking Borough Council.

To reserve your place please RSVP to oliviaburke@redcross.org.uk or call 020 7877 7494 by 7 September 2015

Please let us know any dietary, access or transport requirements as these can be accommodated by the event organisers.