HELPING YOU TO KEEP READING

The Home Library Service will deliver books to you for free if you enjoy reading but are unable to get to your local library due to poor health or mobility, or if you are a carer.

We offer a wide range of fiction and non-fiction books in standard and large print, eBooks and audiobooks.

You can choose the sorts of books you prefer to read, and a selection will be delivered to you by our volunteers once a month. Volunteers can also show you how to access the libraries' online services for eBooks, eAudiobooks and eMagazines. Please ask for details.

You can use the Home Library Service just for a short time, for example if you have just got home from hospital or during the winter. The Home Library Service is delivered in partnership with BCP Council.

MAKE LIFE EASIER

All our volunteers are local people who are DBS/ PVG* checked and carry photographic ID so our clients can be confident they're in safe hands. They all want to support people who need help to get the most out of life.

Our Home Library Service is there to make life a whole lot easier. That's why Royal Voluntary Service volunteers are happy to just call in for a chat, as well as drop off any books. Sometimes, the reassurance there's someone to talk to is just as valuable as the Library Service itself.

DON'T BE AFRAID TO ASK

Everyone has times when they need a bit of support. Perhaps you've been ill or are recovering from an operation – or maybe you're just not as mobile as you used to be. We will visit you to talk about how the service works and what you like to read. With support from our volunteers, you don't have to stop doing the things you enjoy or need to do.

For more information, to make a donation or to find out about volunteering, please call 01305 236 666 visit royalvoluntaryservice.org.uk, or email dorsetwiltshirehub@royalvoluntaryservice.org.uk

IT'S A REAL DELIGHT WHEN IT'S HARD TO GET TO THE LIBRARY. THE DELIVERIES ARE BRILLIANT AND THE VOLUNTEERS DELIVERING ARE VERY GOOD, IN FACT I LOOK UPON THEM AS FRIENDS.
