

Lily and lime Id

Area covered: All of SEH CCG area

Lily and lime Id enables and supports young people with learning disabilities into sustainable pathways of employment through adapted learning and practical training programmes in partnership with Can Do training. From 'trowel to table' showcases how to grow, produce and eat well and look after your health. The programmes are designed for young people to live fulfilling and inclusive lives in their community. Our priority is to engage with this vulnerable group and promote good mental and physical health through purpose and challenge. It's not what you can't do , it's what you can'.
