Friends and Family Test (FFT) Report 2018-2019

Background

Would you recommend this service to friends and family?

The NHS FFT was created to help service providers and commissioner understand whether their patients are happy with the service provided, or where improvements are needed. It is a quick and anonymous way to give the patient view after receiving care or treatment across the NHS. This was launched in 2013 and has been rolled out across most NHS services, including community care, hospitals, mental health services, maternity services, GP and dental practices, emergency care, patient transport and more

To find out this the practice uses both online and paper format questionnaires using a company called IWantGreatCare <https://www.iwantgreatcare.org/>

When the practice receives paper feedback this is sent to the company who input the data, together with the online responses they produce star rating for the practice. This year the practice has 5 stars the maximum it can achieve which the practice is very happy about.

The report is for the period April 2018-31 March 2019 (Appendix 1)

During this period the following was found:

270 patients gave review on paper format and 2 gave online reviews

The average score was 5 stars

The majority of patients were very happy with the service and many commented;

- The availability of appointments and their ease of getting an appointment when they wanted one quickly
- The friendliness of staff and clinicians, and naming all of the clinicians during the reviews
- The helpfulness of staff
- The listening and professionalism of the clinicians who discuss treatments with the patients
- Usefulness of online services

There were a few negative comments as follows:

- Difficulties with parking.
The university security have been contacted to try and improve this as many students who should not park here do despite the Health Centre signs
- Delay in waiting at the surgery, and another patient was not happy that they had to come back to discuss another problem.
Unfortunately this can occur from time to time as some patients need to take longer than was originally expected, and the clinician does not want to ask the patient to leave if their problem takes longer. The practice will be more proactive in advertising the need to make multiple appointments if the patient has more than one problem to give time for all to be addressed at the same time.

- A patient was not happy as he/she felt prejudiced as the doctor did not want to give painkillers, and felt that no long term care was given due to him/her being a student, and another felt that the Dr did not understand his/her mental health problems and invalidated. It is very difficult to discuss individual cases, and it would be beneficial if the patient contacted the surgery so that their individual case can be discussed. The doctors adhere to all of the guidelines about prescribing painkillers, some are addictive, therefore will not be given on repeat prescriptions, The GP's would rather review the patient's condition to explore various ways of managing the pain rather than keep giving out repeat prescriptions without review. If any offence has been caused to any patients the Dr apologises for this, as there was not intent to do so.
- Counselling appointments were not well organised and when the patient asked the receptionist about it, she did not know, and the patient had to wait months for an appointment.
Unfortunately the practice/person themselves refers to the counselling service, the practice has not control over how these appointments are managed and their waiting times as this service is independent of the practice
- The charge of £15 for a private letter was thought to be too high.
The practice researched other practices costs for a private letter, and these were found to be higher than £15. Each time someone requests a letter, the patients notes have to be reviewed by the GP, and the letter written, unfortunately this is not covered by the NHS general medical services contract, and has to be done in addition to the NHS work, which is the reason that a private charge is made.
- Appointments out of usual surgery hours were suggested as an improvement. During the year, all of the practices in the area jointly commissioned an extended hour's service from the GP Federation for evening and weekend appointments. Normal GP, nurse and health care appointments can be booked for these surgeries which are held at various places over the North Staffs area, the nearest one is at Bradwell Hospital, but patients can be seen at any of the locations. These can be booked either during opening hours at the practice or via 111
- Sometimes the service is inefficient due to the NHS.
Unfortunately the practice is unable to determine what practice this refers to, but if something is found to be inefficient, this will always be passed onto the relevant service lead
- More information needed from the Nurse Practitioner when giving a smear.
The practice will endeavour to make more information available when patients do have a smear. There are always leaflets available in the practice, and we will be happy to provide information about any of our procedures before a procedure is done.

Conclusion

The practice thanks everyone who has taken the time to comment, and the improvement ones will be taken into account in the future. Overall the comments were very positive and have been fed back to the staff.

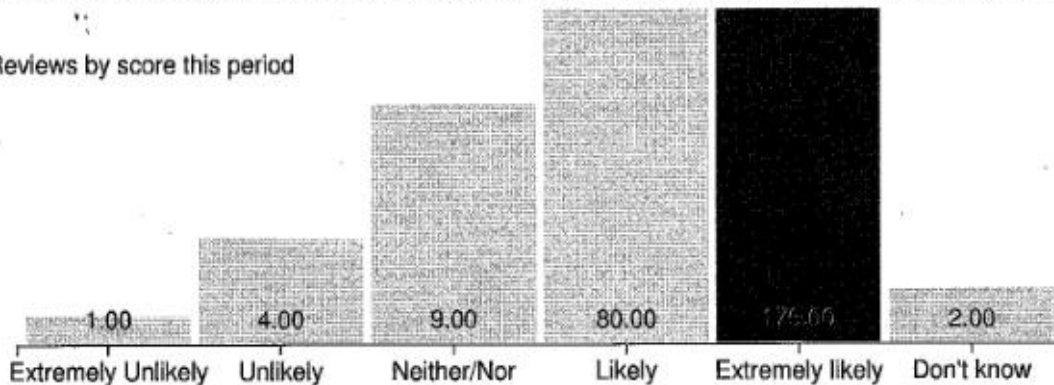

Below are the comments that were made on the survey. (Appendix 2) The actual written comments can be found online on IwantGreatCare <https://www.iwantgreatcare.org/> or in paper format in the waiting room.

Meticulous
Appointments & prescription on the app very responsive
It was a routine appointment but everything was as I would want it to be
All staff are kind & caring & listen to patients
Dr Clarson as well as other doctors are very caring
Perfect, had an ear syringing which went fantastic
Friendly. Don't feel scared. Always on time always helpful. Never let you leave unclear of anything

Always try their best to find the best solution/treatment for you. Receptionists always try to fit around uni timetables with appointments
Good quality service. Excellent, fast.
Staff were on time & friendly
Easy to get an appointment. Great staff
I have always been able to see the doctor or the nurse very quickly and any condition has been investigated and followed up speedily and with the utmost care. I can't really see how patient care can be improved under current external environment and funding rules
Kind considerate expedient knowledgeable
Very friendly and helpful
Friendly environment and able to get an appointment quickly always. A personal service from all staff
Friendly staff, nice environment
Short wait. Dr Clarkson made me feel listened to and was good at explaining plan of care
All excellent, very well cared for Same doctors, continuity of care. Reminders for test . Friendly staff. Good knowledge from practice nurse
Very friendly staff. Nurse Marilyn is especially lovely. Access to booking appointments online is a huge advantage and the fact that appointments are available when required is great. The fact that prescriptions get send to pharmacy is also great  (five stars)
The doctor listened to my concerns and was willing to consider my worries
The doctors quickly figured out what medicine and course of treatment would be best for me
My doctor has always been and continues to be helpful and understanding with regards to my mental health issues. He has suggested treatments that have generally worked well
Friendly and efficient
Lots of available appts. Staff are friendly. GP's are caring and give people time to explain myself & my illness
Always able to get appointment. All staff friendly & helpful and listen to concerns
All excellent, staff appointment times etc. Faultless
Very lucky to be here and part of this GP Practice, cannot think that we could be served any better
We are very lucky to live here and have this GP Practice
The discussions are relaxed but thorough with plenty of information and guidance offered, but nothing imposed and no sense of being pressured. Also there is not sense of being "rushed" i.e. needing to get through the appointment quickly. The practices support of patients over 60/65 is particularly thoughtful
The care that was given was good and helpful
Close attention to detail from doctor. Good care overall :-)
Dr O'Byrne is fantastic. He explains clearly his reasoning for recommendations and if he says he'll do something it always gets done. The online booking system is very helpful
Doctor was very helpful with questions and explanation. Thank you

Easy to get appointment. Access & parking good. Friendly staff & doctors/practitioners give time and listen
Due to time constraints I believe I was not able to explain fully the extent of why I was there, however this did not occur with every GP or RN that assisted me, others were very helpful & listened to my concerns
Good advice from doctor. No waiting time- appointment on time
I think everything is good. Quick appointments, good treatment and attention a and finally proxim
Receptionists are friendly and great doctors
I always feel my GP Dr Deaville always listens to me carefully and involves me in any decision
Easy to get appointment. Friendly staff, convenient location (on campus) for university students
During both appointments I have received injections which I am not fond of, however both the nurses were amazing at chatting to my whilst I was having them to help distract me. It is lovely that the staff go the extra mile to make you feel relaxed and comfortable and it is easy to see that you are in good hands
Doctors tend to be very understanding and helpful when treating conditions. Have a good knowledge of reproductive health which is more than other practices I have visited Always seen on time. Receptionists extremely helpful. Doctors always explain things properly. You never feel rushed or a nuisance
Dr Deaville was very accommodating, listened well. Easy to get an appointment
Dr Clarson is a godsend
Lovely nurse practitioner. Was able to be seen quickly
Includes me in decision making. Care is of high quality. Good Dr- patient relationship. Feel able to discuss issues openly & honestly. Dr Clarson is very good - approachable & friendly
My GP has involved me in all stages of the decision making process while I have suffered with mental health issues. He is kind, understanding & incredibly knowledgeable. A real asset to the medical profession & to the practice. I won't see anyone except Dr Clarson now. Brilliant
Doctor was very helpful, seemed caring
The receptionist and nurses and doctors are very kind and nice. They are very helpful
Appointment waiting time was quick & making telephone appointment with the receptionist was fast and easy
Very good care service.
I don't feel the doctors are interested in helping long term. As a university student, I feel the doctors are prejudice against me when it comes to painkillers and I feel like they are only interested in keeping me OK now until I am at home and someone else's problem. I.E. no long term plans/treatment
Parking is not always easy
Yvette was lovely and encouraging. Next time perhaps it would be a bonus to explain the feelings during a smear in advance and perhaps explain a little more about the relevance of a smear for one who does not know much. Otherwise brilliant service
Improve the online system to improve user use

Throughout the day the wait can be sometimes very long. Thankfully, I had not upcoming lectures but I remember waiting for over 30 mins
Parking not always easy
sometimes the reception staff do not acknowledge patients waiting times
Nice helpful doctors. Gave me the best possible care. No improvements (needed)
Always helpful advice & treatments. No improvements needed#
Good doctors and nurses. Welcoming and helpful staff on the front desk
The doctor was very helpful
Staff there are really interested in your and your care
Straight to the point
Quick friendly
Professional care. Treat you like an independent adult.
Very friendly staff.
Always able to get an appointment either the same or next day. The staff are always friendly and helpful
Knew straight away what my issue was, and was extremely helpful for aftercare
Dr's were very friendly, informative, to the point and covered every angle.
Everything (positive)
Good availability of appointments. Nice staff
Fast, friendly, made sure I felt safe
Fast appointment
Can always get an appointment when needed. Doctors/nurses take their time and are thorough
Dr Clarson is very understanding and talks through problems in depth
Very easy to get an appointment. The doctors are very good and friendly
Always get an appointment when needed
I was seen to and then offered the earliest appointment
Nice staff, quick appointments
Can quickly get an appointment.
Easy to get an appointment fast. Friendly staff

Online comments

Always helpful- appointment easy to arrange, staff and Dr's wonderful the online booking system for appointments is so useful. Far easier to be able to see when there are appointments available and book in. All staff are friendly, easy t talk to and very helpful
