

Fever?

Think MenB vaccine

This vaccine can cause fever in young babies in the first 48 hours following vaccination

Three doses of paracetamol should be given after the MenB vaccination but some babies may still have a fever. Parents may seek a medical opinion.

Be sure to ask about MenB vaccination to avoid unnecessary invasive investigations in young infants who are otherwise well.