

Dr Sam Partridge MBChB DRCOG MRCGP MRCP DPD DOccMed

Dr Partridge trained at Bristol University Medical School. He qualified in 1996. He then worked in hospital medicine in Bristol, Taunton, London and South Wales.

He joined Yeo Vale Medical Practice as a partner in 2006 after working for 2 years at a practice in Clevedon.

He has particular interests in Medical Education, Care of the Elderly, Respiratory Medicine, Dermatology, Minor Surgery and Occupational Health. In 2012 he completed a Postgraduate Diploma in Dermatology and has worked as a Clinical Assistant at the Bristol Royal Infirmary. In 2015 he completed a Diploma in Occupational Health.

He is one of the GP trainers who are responsible for the supervision and training of Junior Doctors when they are attached to the practice.

He is married with two young daughters and is a keen golfer.