

Child Protection

The Practice has a Child Protection Policy which is updated regularly. There are also designated Child Protection Officers in the Practice. If you have any concerns in relation to child protection, please contact one of the doctors for further assistance.